Declares She Was Falsely Arrested While Trying to Prevent Them from Choking Her.

The special detectives from the East Fifty-first street station, and those who have been detailed from the Detective Bureau, now think that at last they are on the track of the two men who, last Monday, murdered Butler Ferdinand Harris, at the residence of M. D. C. Borden, 25 West Fifty-sixth street.

These are the two men for whom the police are looking: Fred Lochmeyer, "Mike," of 421 Fifth street, and have lived on the top floor of 615 East

Reading of the Murder.

"Early Tuesday morning either Flynn or Lochmeyer went out and bought a copy of The World.' It was the first and only newspaper I saw in the house while there. They read aloud the story of the Harris murder, and Lochmeyer ested in it.

"I became suspicious, and about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon I decided go away from the house and to a rela-tive of mine. I told Mamie Shields so. heard Lochmeyer say to Mamie; 'Jolly her, and try to get her to stay here. She knows too much. If we let her go she may squeal.

"As soon as I got into the hail Flynn got me by the throat and began to choke me. As he did so he said, 'By ____, you will never go out of this house will never go out of this house alive again.

"I called loudly for help, and a policeman came running up the stairs. Before he reached the top floor where we were Flynn and the other two men ran up the foof stairs and escaped.

"Then Mam'e Shields came out and told the policeman that I had assaulted her and her mother. That was untrue, but the policeman arrested me. I told this same story to the detectives yesterday afternoon and they promised to have me released, but they have not done so."

Bittmeler Cries for Mercy.

Shortly before the arraignment of Mrs. Cowie, Louis Ditmeler, the alleged sneak thief who was arested Tuesday afternoon with a bag in his hand which contained clothing stolen from the residence of Jacob London, and a silver card receiver stolen from Dr. Bissell's residence, was brought into court. He seemed badly frightened and cried and begged for mercy.

When arraigned, Dittmeler told Justice Ryan the same story he had told all along since his arrest. He said that "Billy" Flynn and a man whom he knew as "Mike" had hired him to help them to do come work, and after entering several houses, and leaving him outside, had given him the bag to carry.

Justice Ryan held Dittmeler in $1,000 ball for trial.

The man that Dittmeler calls "Mike" is thought by the police to be Lochmeyer.

Wilson rains to the connect with little Wille's fast ones. No runs.

Jimmy Ryan's treacherous bounder got away from Doyle, and the first Collup was safe. James got too frisky and Clarke caugiff him napping by a quiet throw. Dahlen made three weak efforted to connect with the delusive pellet, and to connect with the delusive pellet, and the connect with the delusive pellet.

Second Inning.

No ruis.

The "Old Man" bunted and beat the ball. Lange tried the same trick, but sacrificed. Everett planted a safe one past second and Uncle Adrian ambient bearing the second on the throw to the plate. Van gathered in Stewart's long fig. A wild pitch advanced Everett to the three-quarter planter out from Fuller to Wilson. One run.
